NEWS:

HAPPY NEW YEAR!!: 14 Brave souls met at the HYC for the annual New Year's Day Sail: Max and Sarah Hailey, Don and Joy Jones, Matt and Dixie Crawford, David Bergevin, Tom Bently, Chad Schnarr, Janet Rogers, Frank Steinle, Tom Gillard, Corey Gillard, and myself. Some chose to skip the sailing and show up for the post-sailing activities: Bob and Aggie Alt, Paul, Wendy, Zeke, Jacob, and Ellie Mae Stephens.

For those of you who chose to stay in your nice warm homes, you missed a great time albeit a little chilly (27 degrees according to Bergevin's thermometer). We rafted up and passed out Champagne and orange juice. We then sailed around the lake for a couple of hours before heading back to the site to huddle around the fire and watch the snow fall.

Top three reasons why sailing in 27 degrees is not that bad:

- 1) Your beer never gets warm (nothing gets warm for that matter);
 - 2) No one wants to stop sailing so they can swim; and
 - 3) You have the entire lake to yourself.

THANKS FROM THE COMMODORE: On behalf of the HYC, I want to thank Donna and Lucian Cayce for hosting the Christmas Party. We all appreciate the use of your beautiful new home for the party. Forty-five hearty souls, tons of great food and drink, and lots of wonderful gifts performed a dynamic load test on your structure and found it to be quite sturdy. Aarrggggh matey, she stood up under a healthy blow. The rain pounded against the hatches and the wind howled in the rigging, but she kept her keel down and never dipped the rail. Is it true that you're doing a booming business supplying prints of the bedroom art? Thanks again.

- Commodore Max Hailey
